We have finished with our rock project. We weighted our rocks, we traced them, we measured them using graph paper and measuring tape. We looked at them with magnifying glasses and even painted them. We used the rocks we found on our rock hunts to form our rock families. Last week, we decided to pick a new project. The children voted on several ideas that they came up with and the winner was SPACE. We are excited to pretend to be astronauts and explore different orbits and planets. If you have any books at home on space, can we please borrow them to share with the class.

We are in need of a few items for our space project. We would like to make a space shuttle but need a large refrigerator type box.

We are also in need of items for our ice cream day. There will be a sign up list on our door of items we need for that special day.
